considered Respondent's excuses for not being able to do so and does not find them persuasive.*

Re: Kathy Drew-King Petitioner v. Deep Distributors of Greater NY, Inc. D/B/A The Imperial Sales, Inc.
Case No.: CV-16-1916 (SJF) (AKT)

Your Honor:

This firm is counsel to Deep Distributors of Greater NY, Inc., Respondent in the above-referenced matter. We write again seeking a further modification from your Honor's August 9, order. (Docket #33) Despite attempts to mutually schedule the re-reading at a mutually agreed upon time tomorrow we are unable to agree on a time to do so with the National Labor Relations Board representatives. We have proposed anytime between 9:30 and 12:30 before various employees leave the premises for their meal breaks. We do not believe that after 12:30 we can maximize employee attendance. The National Labor Relations Board has insisted that the reading occur between 4:00 and 5:00. We explained to the Board that we are not available at that time. Beginning at 4:00 my clients and all management level employees will be in a client meeting that is expected to last long after the warehouse employees leave.

We therefore respectfully request that we be granted an additional two work days to perform the reading. It is our intention to offer Friday between 8:00 and 5:00 or Monday between 10:00 and 5PM for the reading.

Respectfully submitted,

ZABELL & ASSOCIATES, P.C.
